

A Different Kind of College Seminar

COL295 Special Topics: Service Learning Through College Seminar

Spring 2018 CRN 23363

Tuesday & Thursday, 4:20 pm - 5:45 pm

A 3.0 credit section of College Seminar designed especially for students who want to give back to the community. This course will focus on service projects within the college and local community while working with local charitable and service organizations.

An ideal course for students who want to:

- build their resume
- apply for scholarships
- pursue fields such as social work, nursing, psychology, or public service
- give back to the community

This course will fulfill the College Seminar requirement.