

A Different Kind of College Seminar
COL 110: Service Learning Through College Seminar
Spring 2020 Tuesdays & Thursdays 8:00-9:15 a.m.
CRN 35030

A 3.0 credit section of College Seminar designed especially for students who are looking to give back to their community. This course will focus on service projects within the local and college while working with local and charitable organizations. No outside transportation required and volunteer hours are earned in class. At the conclusion of class all students will receive recommendation letters which are key for future employment and scholarship opportunities. No prerequisites required.

An ideal course for the following majors:

- Nursing
- Chemical Dependency
- Social Work
- Psychology
- Criminal Justice
- Education
- Public Service

Any questions please reach out to

Professor Danielle DiMauro-Brooks at dimaurd@sunysuffolk.edu

